Hi Tanya,

I spoke with Ryan Jackson – he is fine with Wendy signing as long as OP is in the loop.

Thanks,

Susan

If the rules are for the Administrator's signature, they can go to OP this week. If they're for the OCSPP/AA's signature, we'd need to get Wendy to sign them first before she goes out on leave for the later part of the week. Once Wendy signs the rules, they could then go to OP for transmission to the Federal Register for publishing.

Hi Tanya,

Thanks for getting back to me. ☺ I will ask and let you know what I find out. You plan to send them to OP this week, right?

Thanks,

Susan

Hi Susan,

And sorry we lost you at the elevator. Before the doors closed, you asked who would sign the three formaldehyde direct final rules. The EPA Administrator signed the final formaldehyde rule, although that authority had been delegated to the OCSPP AA. So for these direct final rules, the Administrator has the option of signing them or Wendy, as the Acting OCSPP AA could do it. Appreciate you checking to see what is the preference. Thanks.

Tanya
